SANTA FILOMELA.

BY H. W. LONGFELLOW. Thene'er a noble deed is wrought, Thene'er is spoken a noble thought, Our hearts, in glad surprise,

To higher levels rise. The tidal wave of deeper souls into our immost being rolls, And lifts us unawares

Out of all meaner cares. lonor to those whose words or deeds hus help us in our daily needs, And by their overflow

Thus thought I, as by night I read Of the great army of the dead, Trenches cold and damp, The starved and frozen camp-

The wounded from the battle-plain, In dreary hospitals of plain, The cheerless corridors, The cold and stony floors. A lady with a lamp I see Pass through the glimmering gloom, And filt-from room to room. And slow, as in a dream of blise,

The speechless sufferer turns to kiss Her shadow, as it falls Upon the darkening walls. As if a door in heaven should be Opened, and then closed suddenly, The vision came and went, The light shone and was spent. On England's annals, through the long Hereafter of her speech and song, That light its rays shall cast

From portals of the past. A lady with a lamp shift a In the great history of the land, A noble type of good,

Nor even shall be wanting here The paim, the Hly and the spear, The symbols that of yore Saint Filomela bore.

Sightingale—a tribute to Florence, the saint of the VARIETY.

Punch thinks Experience, like Time, "nuts a man to many a wrinkle." No professional man lives so much from hand to th as a dentist. The science of getting on well ... h a woman is like folin playing. It depends principally on the beau-

An Irishman tells of a fight in which there was but one whole nose left in the crowd, "and that belonged to the tay-kettle."

Courting is an irregular, active, transitive verb, ndicative mood, present tense, third person, singular number, and agrees with all the girls in town. CURIOUS PLAY ON VORDS .- The following play

"I cannot bear to see a bear, bear down upon a hare, When bare of hair, he strips the hare, for hare I cry 'for To some men it is indispensable to be worth money, for without it they would be worth nothing.

More evil truths are discovered by the corruption of the heart than by the penetration of the mir Is not every face beautiful in our eyes, which abitually turns towards us with affectionate, guilt-

Jones.—The philosopher Jones—has discovered the respective natures of a Distinction and a Difference. He says that "a little Difference" frequently makes many enemies, while a little Distinction attracts hosts

The best description of weakness we ever have heard, is contained in a wag's query to his wife, when she gave him some chicken broth, if she would try to coax that chicken to wade through the soup

A Western editor perpetrates or steals the following on "Father Adam:"

He laid him down and slept—and from his side— A woman is her magic beauty rose; Dazzled and marmed he called the woman bride, And his first sleep became his last repose.

"Look here, Clem, can you tell dis nigger why dat wooly head ob yours and de moon am alike?" "Well, Sambo, I guess it's case dey am boff

"No, dat am not it; it's cause dey am boff 'sposed

JUST So .- A lecturer at Harvard College said in a lecture not long ago: "Viewing the subject from the esoteric standpoint of Christian, exegetical analysis, and agalutinating the polsynthetical ectoblasts of homogenious asceticism, we perceive at once the absolute individuality of this entity; while from the other standpoint of incredulous synthesis, which characterize the Xenocratic hierarchy of the Jews, we are constantly impressed with the precisely anti-peristatic quality thereof."

TRUE OF KISSES AND UMBRELLAS .- "If a I steals my umbrella," says Hunker, "it's no use makin' a fuss; it only shows that umbrella equilibrium has been broken! Now, if I take from some one else, that restores the equipoise—there is, really, no umbrella lost; and an umbrella is only lost when it s used up."

GULLT IN EVERY LINEAMENT.—There is a good story Gullt in every lineament.—There is a good story of a party of verdant ones, who attended court for the first time during a criminal trial, pressed in at the door, and gaining a toe-hold upon the extreme edge of an outer bench, took a survey of the scene around the "judge's stand," "Who are them twelve men settin' there clust together?" whispered one of the "party" to a waggish by-stander, pointing to the jury-box. "Those are the prisoners," was the reply. "I thought so!" was the rejoinder: "if I was on the jury, I'd convict every one of 'em from their looks alone! Look at that head fellow, (pointing to the foreman:) see him watch what's goin on! He knows all about it, I'll warn't you! Well, they'll get it—ten years a piece, least calculation!" To

"John," said a father to his son, one day, when he caught him shaving the "down" off his upper lip, "don't throw your shaving-water out where there are any barefooted boys; for they might get their feet

During a late thunder-storm at Greenville, South Carolina, the lightning struck a mill, knocking over two slaves, who were at work in it. As soon as they regained their feet, the first exclamation of one of A lady informs a Boston editor that having a good constitution she can bear a great deal of happiness. Her idea of perfect bliss is a fast horse in a sleigh, plenty of buffalo robes and a neat fitting overcoat with a man in it. She added, if that is not happiness, I'm open to conviction as to what it is!

Do all in your power to teach your children selfgovernment. If a child is passionate, teach him by gentle means to curb his temper. If he is greedy, cultivate liberality in him. If he is sulky, charm him out of it by frank good humor. If indolent, accustom him to exertion; and train him so as to perform even onerous duties with alactity. If pride comes in to make obedience reluctant, subdus him by counsel or discipline. In short, give your children the habit of over-coming their besetting sins.

To constitute a perfect gentleman, the best attributes of the heart and head must be combined. He who would indeed deserve that proud epithet must be

To the Farmer and Dealers in facilities not herctofore possessed by any in this State for manufacturing Agricultural Implements, I beg leave to announce that I am now properly under way with that business. I can ploy none but the best and most experienced mechanics, and work no material but the best. In this way I hope to promote the interest of the good mechanic, the interest of the farmer, the interest of our young and growing Agricultural State, and at the same time that interest which is foremost with all mankind—silf. I have had twenty years' experience in the manufacturing business; I established the first shop, and made the first steel plow in the State of Wisconsin, in the dawn of her day of great agricultural improvement. I also made the first Reaping and Mowing machine, and the first steel plow ever made in this State. Therefore, with my experience and a knowledge of the wants of the country, (which are different from most others.) I feel confident that I can and will do much for the interest of the agriculturists of this country; and in my effects I trust I shall most turists of this country; and in my efforts I trust I shall meet with a good share of patronage from the farmer, and all interested in this matter, and in the interest and development of the agricultural improvement of our State. I design, and have ander way, the manufacturing of in the great agricultural State of Ohio.

Please favor me with a call and see for yourself, and be convinced that I am publishing no humbug, but simply facts as they are, and that our young State can within itself already previde the farmer with implements inferior to none now in use.

Any article I manufacture will have all the tatest improvements, and be finished in a workmanlike manner.

All kinds of agricultural implements and machines repaired on short notice, and in the best manner, and on reasonable terms.

1500 CAST STEEL CALIFORNIA DEEP TILLER OR QUEEN OF THE WEST PLOWS.

The mould board, the land-ide and shear are manufactured of cast steel, making the plow run much lighter than any plow ever used in this country. Also. GANG PLOWS, CULTIVATORS, HARROWS, FARM MILLS, 4c., 4c.

In addition to what I manufacture, I shall constantly be receiving implements from the best makers of the Eastern and Western States, amongst which are 500 CINCINNATI EAGLE STEEL 4 ROVER PLOWS a shipment of which has just arrived. These plows stand, in point of true merit and worth, altogether higher than any others in the great agricultural State of Ohio.
